I hereby appeal my personal property valuation and/or the penalty assessed by the Assessor, due to the following reasons: (You may attach additional information to this protest.)

It was my understanding that I did not have to file personal property tax unless new property was added. Since no new property was acquired I did not file. Current property was already on file. In the past we always had something to add.

INSTRUCTIONS

APPEAL: You may appeal the assessment of the penalty and the interest to the county board of equalization within 30 days of the date of this notice. If you do not file an appeal in a timely manner, this penalty and interest assessment will become final, due, and owing.

If an appeal is filed, the county board of equalization is limited to only correcting wrongly imposed or incorrectly calculated penalties. The county board of equalization has no authority to waive or reduce a correctly imposed and calculated penalty.

PENALTY: Penalty is imposed in the following manner:

1. 10% of the tax due on the value added after May 1st and on or before June 30th of the year the property should have been reported; or
2. 25% of the tax due on the value added after June 30th of the year the property should have been reported.
