Instructions

Dismissal. Failure to adequately identify the property that is being protested, not stating a reason for the protest, and not including a requested valuation will result in dismissal of the protest.

Where to File. This form is required to be filed with the county clerk in the county where the property is located. This form is used to protest the valuation and any penalties assessed on real and/or personal property, unless the county where the protest is to be filed has its own form, which may include an electronic version of this form. When completed, this form must be signed either in writing or electronically, dated, and filed with the county clerk in which the property is located.

Who Can File. The owner of the property can file this form for each property being protested. If the person is filing this form on behalf of the owner of the property, authorization to do so must be provided with the protest.

If the person filing the protest is not the owner of the property or authorized to protest on behalf of the owner, the county clerk must mail a copy of the protest to the owner of the property. Complete one protest form for each property being protested.
